

"Women's View - 2019"

Redwood City, CA –call for artists

The 15th Annual San Mateo County Women's View art show is open to women artists who live in OR or are employed by, the County of San Mateo. Artists are encouraged to submit 2-dimensional artwork and photography that exemplifies their personal view of the world. Only ONE entry may be submitted ($10 entry fee).

Art will be exhibited in the Caldwell and Community Galleries at 400 County Center in Redwood City from March 4 to April 30, 2019.

For ENTRY FORMS and rules contact Boris Koodrin, Curator for the San Mateo County Arts Commission, at

boriskoodrin@gmail.com

Note: 100 entry requests are accepted on a first-come basis and all accepted entries are exhibited. No nudes, politics, religious or violent imagery is allowed. Your date and time of request for an entry form will determine your place in line. If placed on a waiting list, your chance of getting accepted is still reasonable, though not guaranteed. There will be three prizes of $100 awarded and three Honorable Mentions. Awarding takes place at the Board of Supervisors 2019 March meeting and is open to the public.