

Art Guild of Pacifica - Call for Entry

68th ANNUAL MEMBERS EXHIBIT October 23 – November 22, 2026

68th Annual Members Exhibit will be installed in the East and West Galleries. For this show, only one piece of artwork per member will be exhibited. A collaboration will be counted as the one piece for the collaborating artists. Due to space restrictions, diptychs are allowed, but only if joined and wired as one piece. No triptychs or large multi-part pieces. No AI (artificial intelligence) art. There is no theme. The exhibition is not juried, but prizes will be awarded. Current AGP membership is required.

Select a Theme: vote for 2027 AGP exhibition suggestions by circling your vote on the backside of this entry form, submit with your entry.

Awards: Selected by Lorena Molina, Assistant Professor of Studio Arts Practice, San Francisco State University.

In addition to cash awards, 4 Exhibition Awards will be designated for a special Art Guild of Pacifica exhibit in the Main Gallery during the 2026 Annual Members Exhibit.

Remember: "Exhibition Award" winners are not eligible for another "Exhibition Award" for the next two AGP Members Exhibits.

Sales: Artists may have their work for sale, or not (NFS,) as they choose. Sanchez Art Center, as the artist's representative, will retain a 30% commission on any work sold. Sold work will remain in place for the duration of the exhibit. Work "Not for Sale" shall be marked NFS.

Exhibition Coordination: East and West Gallery Committees will arrange the show and have the final say in the placement of artwork. East or West Gallery location will be assigned by lottery at time of receiving.
